

Inauguration of CIPL/CIPSH Chair at Leiden University
International Symposium: September 29-30, 2022.

Theme: Ethnolinguistic vitality and diversity: Looking back and moving forward

Venue: Faculty Club Restaurant, Rapenburg 73

Programme

Thursday September 29, 2022

09.30- 10.00	WALK -IN TEA AND COFFEE
10.00 – 10.15	Frieda Steurs , Secretary General, CIPL, Director INT & Lisa Cheng , Director, LUCL	Welcome
10.15 – 11.00	Mandana Seyfeddinipur Director, ELDP/ELAR, Berlin-Brandenburgische Akademie der Wissenschaften	And after 20 years we have just scratched the surface ...
11.00 – 11.45	Gabriela Paez Baez , Oregon, Director Language Revitalization Lab & Co-Director, the National Breath of Life Archival Institute for Indigenous Languages	Relevance of language revitalization in a diversity of vitality contexts and support strategies
11.45 – 12.30	Birgit Hellwig , U Cologne, Language Documentation and Psycholinguistics	Child language documentation
12.30 – 14.00	Lunch	Instituut voor de Nederlandse Taal (INT) Rapenburg 61, 2311 GJ Leiden
14.00 – 14.45	Serge Sagna , Manchester U, Multilingualism, Child language acquisition, language policy and planning	Language socialisation fosters language maintenance in the Casamance, but minority languages are still seriously threatened
14.45 – 15.30	Rachel Ayuk Ojong Diba , U Buea & SUNY Buffalo, sociolinguistics, multilingualism, conversational analysis	Space: A determining variable in the documentation of multilingualism
15.30 – 15.45	Tea and Coffee Break
15.45 – 16.30	Anne Pauwels , SOAS & U Melbourne, Multilingualism and language education, language maintenance and language issues in refugee centres	Exploring multilingual soundscapes
16.30 - 17.00	General Discussion: Key issues of the day	Instituut voor de Nederlandse Taal (INT) Rapenburg 61, 2311 GJ Leiden
18.00 -	Dinner	Surakarta, Noordeinde 51 – 53, 2311CB Leiden

Friday 30th September

9.00 – 9.30	Walk-in Tea and Coffee
9.30 – 10.15	James Essegbey , U Florida, language documentation and description, language contact, pidgins and creoles, orthography development	Writing as a double edged sword: Implications for literacy and vitality
10.15 – 11.00	Zinnia Mevawalla : U Strathclyde, Scotland UK, Early years education, inclusion and equity for children and families, post-colonialism	The complexities of early English-language learning in education-focused NGOs in India: Policies, Perspectives and Post-colonialism
11.00 – 11.15	Tea and coffee break
11.15 – 12.00	Deborah Hill , U. Canberra, language documentation and description, language in development and sustainability studies	Global concepts and ethnolinguistic diversity: how documentary linguistics can contribute to policies and strategies on gender equity
12.00 – 12.30	Azeb Amha , ASC Leiden, language documentation and description & Komla Tsey , Cairns Institute, James Cook U., Education for social sustainability, well-being in marginalized communities and development	Book launch Languages, Linguistics and Development Practices, Deborah Hill and Felix K. Ameka (eds.) Palgrave 2022
12.30 – 13.00	Eline van der Veken Brill Publishers	Retrodigitalisation project Linguistic Bibliography
13.00 – 14.00	Lunch	Instituut voor de Nederlandse Taal (INT) Rapenburg 61, 2311 GJ Leiden
16.00 – 17.00	Felix K. Ameka, Inaugural Lecture	Groot Auditorium Academiegebouw Rapenburg 73

